

Welcome to Cal State East Bay! As a new transfer student, it can be challenging just getting started. We encourage you to focus on your major courses first and seek advising from your major department, especially since the majority of the coursework that you'll be completing here will be for your major. However, below are a few non-major requirements that we can share with you now to help you get started.

If you are transferring from another CSU and took upper division coursework there, you may have satisfied the upper division
